

NEVER STOP THE WAR

6

Turn around the "gun" as He's forming from the Sea
Ripping on the Fun as He's turning toward Me
Horror to the the Son, Rebel on the Sea
Getting it all done as He's headed for defeat
Coming out of nowhere-- as He fights against the Son
No one really knows when the battle's just begun
Everyone has said what the prophets had to say
But now we are all dealing with Today —

For what goes on Today, would never go away, and I don't want to say, but you know they'll be
All the bloodshed, All the warnings, Never stop the war, Never stop the war
Killings, Fallings, Professions are calling,
Warnings are Reasons, but Reasons keep Falling —

Forget about the sin, Forget about the wrong, Now it's time for the War
All his armies are ready — — and it's time for all to GET IT ON —
Bludgeoning the cities, Bludgeoning the Causes, Bludgeoning all but the Son
Raping for the order — — to the soldiers that will barely know Her —

Causing from the source of the setting of the Son
Forgetting about the evil that was surely about to come
Setting of the Son, know it's been done
Focusing on the World that will feel his fucking army
Could we offset all the sickness that we'll see
Putting an end to the hatred that will eventually come to be
For now on a Sunday as He starts to make His Run
They are desecrating the symbols that we know will end His Terror

Run for your life
No use to Fight
Well He's on His way now
With His armies in tow —
